To give you an idea of the EV Battery and its safety, with the final issue of our 4-Part series on the Indian Charging Landscape, we shine the spotlight on the Battery and the BMS.

A Battery Management System (BMS) is the electronic brain of an EV battery pack monitoring, protecting, balancing, and communicating data to ensure safe and optimized performance.

Any geopolitical instability or export restrictions can jeopardise India's EV ambitions overnight. By building a resilient domestic BMS and battery supply chain, we can mitigate such risks.

2. Lithion Power Lithion Power stands as India's largest manufacturer of advanced Battery Management Systems, having focused exclusively on developing control systems for electric vehicles and energy ...

In India, where EVs are gaining traction--projected to account for 30% of vehicle sales by 2030 (NITI Aayog, 2023)--BMS ensures batteries operate safely and efficiently under diverse ...

Through their expertise in safety, performance optimization, and sustainability, they are making electric vehicles reliable and accessible. As ASDC continues to nurture this talent pool, BMS ...

a battery management system becomes crucial. The primary objective of a battery management system is to sustain adequate health of all the cells in the battery pack, provide power required by the ...

Increasing adoption of electric cars, buses, and trucks across India is driving significant demand for advanced BMS technologies. The system's role in monitoring cell voltage, temperature, ...
